Final Launch of the New Learner Experience - Tomorrow!

2025-03-09 - Gabriella Eriksson - Product Highlight

Tomorrow, March 11, is the day we will fully transition to the new learner experience!

What is going to happen?
Well, nothing! Everything will work as usual. It's just going to be much better.

Here's a summary of all the great improvements that come with the new interface:

 Modern Layout and Navigation – An intuitive design with simplified navigation for a smoother and more enjoyable experience.

 Improved Accessibility – Designed to be more inclusive and compliant with Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG).

 Clearer Course Information and Completion Pages – A more accessible course information page and an improved course completion page for better visibility of progress and achievements.

 Optimized Course View – A cleaner, more focused layout that makes it easier to navigate and engage with course content.

 Streamlined Learning Flow – A collapsible step progress and more intuitive placement of resources make it easier to move through the course.

 More Visible Achievements and Rewards – Now displayed both on the course completion page and in settings.

 Enhanced Discussions and Notifications – Smoother interactions and clearer communication.

 Upgraded Header – An improved top menu where user settings and achievements are easier to access.
